How Fast Can You Pass?

How to play

- » Organise players into a circle with approximately 1 metre between each person.
- » Give one person in the circle a ball who will become the runner.
- » The runner passes the ball to his/her left before beginning to run around the outside of the circle.
- » The players in the circle must try and pass the ball round everyone in the circle before the runner returns to his/her original space.

Equipment needed

- » One large ball
- » Large playing area
